Woman's Friend

Nearly all women suffer at times from female ailments. Some women suffer more acutely and more constantly than others. But whether you have little pain or whether you suffer intensely, you should take Wine of Cardui and get relief.

Cardui is a safe, natural medicine, for women, prepared scientifically from harmless vegetable ingredients. It acts easily on the female organs and gives strength and tone to the whole system.

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., tried Cardui. She writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAR. 27, 1909,

TO BE ELECTROCUTED. John and William Brown, father and on, both colored, charged with assisting in the robbery and burning of Southear', the ancestral home of M s. Mary E Skipwith, and the murder of Mrs Skipwith and Walter G. Johnson, her caretaker, were yesterday at Powha'an, Va ... adjudged guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to die in the elect-ric chair. This makes five convictions thus far in this case. There reasin several other negroes yet to be tried. Those already sentenced to the chair, besides the two Browns, are Jue and Isbam Taylor and Lewis Jenkins. The Taylors and Jenkins will be electrocuted April 20. The other two will prob-ably die at the same time.

The younger Brown was placed on trial Thursday, all the evidence being taken and the case partially argued before adjournment. The argument was concluded yesterday morning, and the case days to the jury the legislation. care given to the jury, the inquisitors re-turning almost immediately with a firstdegree verdict against the youth. Brown took his sentence sullenly, The negro appeared dazid and urable to appreciate what was happening so ut him.

John Brown was told early yesterday for his life. It was the first time the id negro had been informed that the 5-year sentance adjudged against him two days ago would not stand.

The court had set aside the previous verdict of 15 years against the elder Brown, on the ground that the jury had misinterpreted the instructions of the c urt. The new trial was gone into im-mediately after a verdict had been reach-ed in the case of the younger Brown. The evidence was practically the same as that adduced in the other cases. The ttorneys made short work the evidence and with their arguments.

O lie Ross, Monie Johnson, Armstead
Robinson, James Johnson, John Anderson, Nannie Taylor and Annie Taylor are the prisoners yet to be tried. Their cases will not come up until the next term of court. The indictments against the two women will probably be nolle prosequied, there being very little evi-dence against them. The five men will probably all get penitentiary terms.

A little boy in the Back Bay district, at whose house occur many meetings of a certain literary club, was asked not long ago by a returned Bostonian what had become of a family named Deering.

"The Deerings? said the boy. 'Oh they're not asked here any more. They're no longer on mother's list." "'No longer on the list? What's the

He notes the ap pearance of one on Jan. 12, 1680 which he describes in his diary as "a neteer of an obscure bright color very much in shape like the blade of a sword." "What this may portend," he adds, "God only knows, but such another phenomenon I remember to have seen in 1640 about the triall of the greate earle of Strafford, preceding our blondy rebellion.
